

Awaken, Oh World!

“..... by not stopping and by not struggling I crossed the flood difficult to cross.” (P-7)

“Bhikkhus, if a bhikkhu is not skillful in the habit of other’s thoughts, he should train himself to be skillful in the habit of his own mind.” (P-45)

“The evil he himself has done, born of himself and produced by himself, grinds him as a diamond grinds a hard gem.” (P-52)

“Faith is a person’s partner. If lack of faith does not persist, fame and reputation thereby come to him, and he goes to heaven on leaving the body.” (P-74)

“Giving seems like a battle. Through stinginess and negligence a gift is not given.” (P-88)

“Heedfulness is the way to Deathless.

Heedlessness is the way to death.” (P-107)

“I have attained to this Dhamma which is profound, hard to see, hard to understand, peaceful, sublime, beyond reasoning, subtle, to be experienced by the wise.” (P-147)

“Let not your mind lead you, but let your mind be led by you. ” (P-168)
